LUCK OF THE DRAW, TRIPLE PAYOUT AND SUPER 7'S HEADED TO STORES

RALEIGH- Players may have the “Luck of the Draw” or they could possibly hit a “Triple Payout” on the new instant scratch off tickets that will be in stores starting Tuesday, March 11. Along with the introduction of these two games, the North Carolina Education Lottery (NCEL) is announcing the return of the “Super 7’s” game.

The “Super 7’s” game first introduced in October 2007 has been so popular that the NCEL is bringing the game back with a slightly different look. The $1 game has 70 “super” top prizes of $7,000 and also has lot of prizes on many other levels.

“Luck of the Draw” is a $2 game with six top prizes of $20,000. It also is loaded with prizes ranging from $3 up to $2,000. If players reveal a joker symbol, they win double the prize shown. If they reveal a moneybag symbol, they win all 10 prizes shown on that ticket.

“Triple Payout” is a $1 game with 16 top prizes of $2,000. It also has lots of prizes of $600, $90, $60 and more! This game offers players a chance to double or triple their prizes.

100% of the North Carolina Education Lottery net proceeds are used for pre-kindergarten programs for at risk youth, reduction of class size in early grades, school construction and college scholarships for need-based individuals.
